

Homework Menu – Spring 1

English Can you write a diary about a day in the life of a Victorian child – rich or poor 	Geography Use the website 'Mapzone' https://www.ordnancesurvey.co.uk/mapzone To find out about how to read maps. Then have a go at some of the games. What have you learnt from them? 	Times tables Can you go on speed times tables or times table rockstars and beat your speed? 	Maths Can you show fractions using food items? Can you link this to decimals? Can you remember the fraction equivalents for 0.25, 0.5 and 0.75?
Art Can you take some photographs of interesting things? – perhaps you could even take some pictures of reflections. 	Purple Mash Read the safety information on the website 'Think u know: Stay Safe Online' (8-10 year olds) https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/8_10/stay-safe/ Record your own radio show explaining to an audience how to stay safe online. 	Spanish Access your Duolingo account and play on it for 10 minutes everyday for a week. What new words or phrases have you learnt? 	Science/DT/Music Can you design and make a stringed instrument? Can you investigate how the tone of the sound changes by plucking/strumming in diff ways? 